Leave your cooking to us!

After 40 years, we are proud to continue providing innovative culinary experiences, even during uncertain times. Here at Proof of the Pudding, we strive to help our community and make your lives a little bit easier and we hope to take a big stressor off of your plate by offering conveniently prepared Take-and-Bake meals available for pick up.

According to the Centers for Disease Control there is no evidence to support transmission of COVID-19 associated with food. All menu items will be prepared in kitchens that have a strict cleaning and sanitizing protocol in place. We guarantee you that we are working very diligently with our staff to follow the CDC and World Health Organization's guidance to ensure we have the best safety measures in place. Our staff will be washing their hands every 30 minutes, changing their gloves regularly and will be checked in each day prior to the start of their shift. Anyone who appears to be ill, will be sent home immediately and will not be allowed past the check-in point. Your health and well-being remain our top priority.

Check out this week's menu and let us help you!
